The rising STAR of Texas

"where she's headed" by C.P. Harrison

A Note From The President

Welcome to the 12th year of our spring opening program for Texas State University-Round Rock, currently called [re]Imagine. We are pleased, as Round Rock Arts, to see so many of our artists "graduate" to professional levels of artistic expressions and engagement in large shows such as EAST and WEST after starting out with us through our galleries. There is so much visual art in Williamson County compared to 12 years ago! And it is getting increasingly competitive to be selected for our exhibits.

As co-founder and outgoing President on March 31, I thank those who have volunteered on the board, a committee, in the gallery, or during an event. I appreciate those who have made a monetary donation, and financially sponsored an event, a gallery, or a fundraiser over the years. And just as importantly, I admire those who have supported the RRA organization and the art community through kindly deeds and supportive voice. Engagement in RRA is a labor of love for art and our artists, with many volunteer hours, sometimes full-time, donated by board and committee members. We also appreciate the continued support of our gallery sponsors, Texas State University-Round Rock, County Commissioner Terry Cook and staff at the Williamson County Jester Annex Gallery, and the City of Round Rock's Downtowner Gallery.

I wish you well as I leave this organization as a board member, to pursue my artistic endeavors and assume a less ambitious level of volunteerism. The best thing that each of you can do to help RRA flourish is by action - serve on a committee, serve on the board, lend your accounting and computer expertise, volunteer at The Downtowner and Chalk Walk, make a monetary donation, and be a sponsor for our galleries, events, and fundraisers.

Paint it forward!

With kind regards,
Dr. Dale Lynne Rogers Ricklefs
President of Round Rock Arts

[re]Imagine Jurors

B SHAWN COX

B Shawn Cox is a multimedia artist, juror, collector and curator based in Austin, Texas. Born in Lubbock Texas with dusty ranching roots in west Texas, his representational work resonates as contemporary social commentary. His vibrant and diverse art practice has been exhibited widely and was honored last year as a finalist for an Austin ARTBoards. A large scale solo exhibition opens in May 2020 in conjunction with the City of Austin. His work is in corporate and private collections across the United States. Cox has degrees in Architecture and Law but has maintained and developed an art practice for over 30 years.

CHERYL CHRISTIAN

Dr. Cheryl Christian has painted and exhibited watercolors and pastels as well as work in mixed media and fiber art in numerous shows, winning many awards. As a juried professional member, she regularly exhibits with Fiber Forum.

Christian has studied under many fine artists, including Richard McDaniel, Martin Ahearn, Carlton Plumber, and Lian Quan Zhen, and with dozens of mixed media and fiber artists, including Jan Beaney and Jean Littlejohn, Jean Draper, and David Taylor. A practicing artist herself, Christian is keenly aware of the needs of artists to market themselves and is devoted to promoting artists and their work. She has curated and administered onsite shows and digital exhibitions for national organizations. Locally, she has curated exhibitions for the Bosque Museum in Clifton, Texas, and at Austin-Bergstrom International Airport in Austin, Texas.

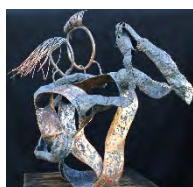

A certified master judge, she has juried and judged regional, national, and international exhibitions. Christian also lectures and conducts workshops on mixed media, judging, appraising, and marketing for artists.
